Dear Miss Ratcliff,

Saling Grove, Great Saling, Essex - Register Entry Amended

List Entry Number:1000743

Following your application to amend the entry for the above site on the Register of Parks and Gardens of Special Historic Interest in England, we have now considered all the representations made and completed our assessment of the site. I am delighted to inform you that Historic England has decided to amend the entry for Saling Grove on the Register of Parks and Gardens of Special Historic Interest in England. The site is listed at Grade II.

Please follow the link below to download a copy of our advice report, which gives the principal reasons for this decision. The Register entry for this site, together with a map, has now been published on the National Heritage List for England, and will be available for public access from tomorrow. This List can be accessed through our website.

The Register in itself entails no additional statutory controls. The historic interest of a park or garden is, however, established as a material planning consideration, and the Register provides the key means by which sites of special historic interest are identified. It draws attention to the fact that the sites included should receive special consideration if changes or proposals for development are being contemplated.

Local authorities are required to consult Historic England over any planning applications they receive which may affect sites graded I or II* on the Register. They are also directed to consult The Gardens Trust on applications which may affect any site on the Register regardless of grade. Additionally, the Register is used by many local planning authorities as the basis for relevant conservation policies in statutory development plans.

Any queries about the registration of the site should be addressed to this office.

It is made clear in the Register that the parks and gardens listed are not open to the public unless they are separately advertised.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if I can be of any further assistance. More information can also be found on our website at www.historicengland.org.uk.

Yours sincerely
